Wayne County Community College District

Strategic Planning & Student Assessment

“Our strategic plan, use of resources and educational programs and services all have one common goal – student success. – Dr. Curtis L. Ivery”
Pathways to Student Success at WCCCD

Student Learning Assessment and Strategic Planning Model

Assessment of Student Learning Outcomes
- Set student learning goals for each course and program
- Measure student performance

WCCCD’s MISSION
WCCCD’s mission is to empower individuals, businesses, and communities to achieve their goals through excellent and accessible services, culturally diverse experiences, and higher education and career advancement programs.

Final Outcome: Student Success
- Complete courses, degrees, and certificates
- Obtain good jobs
- Transfer to universities
- Personal enrichment

Continuous Improvement of Teaching and Learning
- Student, faculty, and staff cooperation to improve teaching and learning

Continuous Improvement of Programs and Services
- Program and service evaluation
- Program and service improvement by faculty and staff

District-wide Strategic Planning
- Analysis of changing student, business, and community needs
- Use analysis to set improvement priorities

Wayne County Community College District