

School of Continuing Education & Workforce Development

Short Term Certificate Programs

---

HOMELAND SECURITY CERTIFICATE (VIRTUAL COURSES)

Program Overview: The Homeland Security Certificate is designed for Managers, administrators, officers and those responsible for developing and implementing strategies and procedures in Homeland Security.

- ✓ NEW- BASIC OFFICER TRAINING: Participants in this course is ideal for pre assignment training, new hire orientation or basic on the job training for security officers. This course is comprised of entry level protection officer and additional basic skills. Topics include OBT Track program: professionalism and ethics, public relations legal authority and liabilities, duties and functions, fire prevention and suppression, patrol, report writing, and first aid.
  - ✓ NEW- BASIC PROTECTION – OFFICER TRAINING: Participants will gain knowledge of the best and safest methods used to accomplish the numerous tasks required of the security professional. The course covers a broad range of subjects, including the duties and responsibilities of the protection officer. The information presented ensures protection officers have the professional expertise to carry out the important mission of protecting people, and information.
  - ✓ NEW- HOMELAND SECURITY- CLOSE PROTECTION SECURITY: Participants will define executive protection as a system of close personal protection, educational programs and contingency planning which is applicable to all types of individuals – not just executives. The material in this course will augment current training and enhance your ability to perform when supporting anyone facing “targeted” violence.
  - ✓ NEW- HOMELAND SECURITY – COUNTERTERRORISM SECURITY: Participants in this course will assist the community to observe and report role of private protection personnel. The course provides training needs of professional’s security officers in counterterrorism security.
  - ✓ NEW- HOMELAND SECURITY – INTRODUCTION TO SECURITRY: Participants in this course will examine basic protection practices of layered security and defense in depth. This series focuses on gaining an understanding and an awareness of the physical security concepts of planning and conducting surveys, security plans, and access control measures.
  - ✓ NEW- HOMELAND SECURITY – PUBLIC EVENTS SECURITY: Participants in this course will provided with an introduction to many unique factors that need to be considered when securing a public or special event. The content was developed to provide exposure to management and the “big picture” functions required to efficiently manage public events.
-

School of Continuing Education & Workforce Development

Short Term Certificate Programs

---

- ✓ NEW- HOMELAND SECURITY – RETAIL LOSS PREVENTION SECURITY: Participants in this course will address the challenging protective functions that expose an officer to physical risks and legal liability in retail security. This field of security work is very challenging and the officer is continually securitized for behavior and appearance. This course also focuses on awareness and prevention of internal theft, types of external theft, and legal basics.
  - ✓ NEW- TELECOMMUNICATIONS BASIC: Participants in this course will define executive protection as a system of close personal protection, educational programs and contingency planning which is applicable to all types of individuals – not just executives. The material in this course will augment current training and enhance your ability to perform when supporting anyone facing “targeted” violence.
  - ✓ NEW- TELECOMMUNICATIONS REFRESHER: Participants in the course will define executive protection as a system of close personal protection, educational programs and contingency planning which is applicable to all types of individuals – not just executives. The material in this course will augment current training and enhance your ability to perform when supporting anyone facing targeted violence.
-