Child benefits cannot exceed 100% of the employee's coverage.
Portability	You may continue coverage for yourself and your covered dependents until age 75 if you cease to qualify as a member. The employee or spouse must be less than age 75 and enroll within 60 days from the date they cease to qualify as a member.
Age Reductions	35% reduction of coverage at age 70, with an additional 20% reduction at age 75.
Coverage During Disability	If you become totally disabled before age 60, coverage will continue and premium will be waived for you and your covered dependents. You must be totally disabled for 9 months before the waiver begins. Coverage continues without premium payment until you recover or turn age 70, whichever occurs first. No benefits will be paid for any disability that results from: willful self-injury or self-destruction, while sane or insane / war or act of war / voluntary participation in an assault, felony, criminal activity, insurrection, or riot.
Accelerated Benefit	If you are terminally ill you can receive up to 75%, not to exceed $250,000, of your life insurance benefit in a lump sum as long as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Your life expectancy is 12 months or less (as diagnosed by a physician).</li></ul>

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Your death benefit is at least $10,000.</li> </ul> When you use the accelerated benefit, your death benefit is reduced by the accelerated benefit payment. There are possible tax consequences to receiving an accelerated benefit payment. You should contact your tax advisor for details. Receipt of accelerated benefits could also affect eligibility for public assistance. The charge for this benefit is included in your premium.
Coverage Outside United States	Coverage continues for up to six months if you or your dependents are outside the United States due to travel, business assignment or while enrolled as a full-time student. Coverage automatically terminates if the insured is outside the United States for any other reason.
Benefit Exclusion	Benefits are not paid for employees and spouses who commit suicide within the first 24 months of coverage (prior group voluntary life insurance applies towards the 24 month time period).

Termination

Your coverage doesn't terminate as long as you are an active employee paying premiums and your employer continues to sponsor the program. Coverage may be terminated with 31 days notice for a false or fraudulent claim.

Individual Purchase Rights

In termination situations, you, your spouse and your children may convert coverage to individual life insurance. Upon coverage termination your employer is required to inform you of individual purchase rights. You have 31 days after coverage ends to convert without a health statement. The amount you can purchase varies depending on the termination situation.

Note: The group policy is insured, which means Principal Life assumes the risk for all claims under the policy. Because the material is a summary of your group voluntary term life insurance, it does not state all insurance contract provisions, restrictions of coverage, benefits by conditions or limitations, or provisions required by state or federal law. If any provision presented here is found to be in conflict with federal or state law, that provision will be applied to comply with federal or state law. The group policy determines all rights, benefits, exclusions and limitations of the insurance described here.
