LUBANA AL QUNTAR AND AL SHAM ENSEMBLE: A CELEBRATION OF ARABIC CLASSICAL AND FOLK MUSIC SUNDAY, OCTOBER 21, 2018 • 6:00 P.M.

This concert is a special presentation that is part of WCCCD'S international education series to celebrate the diversity of its surrounding communities.

Lubana Al Quntar has a heritage deeply rooted in classical Arabic music and is the first Syrian opera singer to attain international recognition.

Al Sham Ensemble is a traditional takht sharqi (Middle Eastern chamber ensemble) comprised of artists residing in Chicago and Michigan with backgrounds from Syria, Egypt, Palestine, and Jordan. The ensemble performs a repertoire of Middle Eastern, Egyptian, and Andalusian classical and folk music on a combination of traditional and Western instruments including the oud, qanoun, nay, violin, cello, and percussion.

Open to the public at no cost!
