Wayne County Community College District's Diversity and Inclusion Program invites you to

Viva La Causa

The film is the story of the founding of the United Farm Workers Organizing Committee under the leadership of Cesar Chavez and Dolores Huerta in the 1960s, seeking a contract with grape growers in California – for an end to child labor, safer working conditions and higher wages. Nonviolent protests and boycotts used followed the tactics of Mahatma Gandhi in India and of Dr. Martin Luther King in the Civil Rights Movement in the United States.
