MICHIGAN UNDERGROUND RAILROAD HERITAGE GATHERING

Join us virtually on Tuesdays and Wednesdays throughout the month of September.

Be a part of the conversation as we collaborate to better promote our statewide Underground Railroad heritage.
The Wayne County Community College District, Michigan Freedom Trail Commission and the Michigan History Center announce the third annual Underground Railroad heritage gathering. This virtual conference is open to individuals, organizations and communities interested in our statewide Underground Railroad heritage. This year’s events include panel discussions, local research, tips for researching local Underground Railroad history, Network to Freedom nominations, tourism tips from Maryland and more. Join us and become part of the conversation!
