Present

A Global Women's Conference

Saturday, July 11, 2009

9:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.

Northwest Campus

8200 W. Outer Drive • Detroit, MI 48219

The Global Women's Conference will be a full day of speakers, panels, and presenters who address issues currently facing women of all cultures and ethnicities. It provides educators, students, and health service providers with best practices for interfacing with women's global issues in the areas of health, education, socio-economics and youth development.

Participants will also learn about IT Career Opportunities (bring resumes), Speed Networking, interviewing and much more.
