

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Wayne County Community College District
Partners with
The Detroit Branch NAACP
To present
A Preparation for the Workforce Workshop

Detroit, MI – Monday, April 21, 2008, 2008 - Wayne County Community College District's (WCCCD) Continuing Education Division, in partnership with The Detroit Branch of the National Advancement for Colored People (NAACP), present A Preparation for the Workforce Workshop. This event will be held on Wednesday, April 23, 2008, from 12:00 noon. - 2:00 p.m., and a second session from 6:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m., at the Northwest Campus, 8551 Greenfield, Detroit, MI.

The purpose of this workshop is to allow participants the opportunity to pre-register and gain insight on becoming employment ready. This event will work in conjunction with the 3rd Annual Jobs! Jobs! Job!: A Super Career EXPO, that will held on Friday, April 25, 2008 from 9:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m. in Wayne Hall at the COBO Hall Conference Center in Detroit, MI. The EXPO, which is a part of the NAACP Freedom Weekend VII, will offer several workshops providing valuable information and insight on interviewing skills, workers' rights, re-entering the workforce, financial security, resume writing and dress for success. On-the spot interviews will be likely so all attendees are encouraged to dress appropriately in professional attire.

This event is open to the public at no cost. For a listing of all special events at the District, please visit our web site at www.wcccd.edu or call (313) 496 - 2704.
