Featuring his new book, “Writing My Wrongs”

Friday, March 18, 2016
10:00 a.m. – 12:00 noon

Downtown Campus • Frank Hayden Community Room 236
1001 W. Fort St. Detroit, MI 48226

This program is designed to provide participants an opportunity to develop the interpersonal skills of resolving disputes and minimizing risk factors to student success. This mentoring program will also highlight the importance of effective communication in achieving academic success and the impact of positive decision making.

Participants attending this program will:

• Engage in recognizing the importance of building and maintaining educational/professional relationships.
• Discuss and identify strategies to overcome barriers to academic success.
• Develop strategies for the use of verbal and nonverbal communication.
• Gain knowledge in the use of conflict resolution.

This program is sponsored by the PBI Grant

Open to the public at no cost!

For more information, please contact the School of Continuing Education and Workforce Development at 313-496-2704 or visit us at www.wcccd.edu