The Other Shore: The Diana Nyad Story

At 64, Diana Nyad achieved the impossible—swimming non-stop from Cuba to Florida, 110 miles in 53 hours, without a shark cage. Brave harsh conditions, perilous jellyfish, and shark-infested waters, she pursued this dream through five epic attempts over four years.

Join us for a thrilling documentary that captures Nyad's incredible journey and her relentless pursuit of a seemingly unattainable goal.

Witness the inspiring story of a legend who defied the odds and pushed the boundaries of human endurance.
