

FALL 2026 PROGRAMS

CURTIS L. IVERY DOWNTOWN CAMPUS

1001 W. FORT ST., DETROIT, MI 48226

| DATE / TIME                                                  | PROGRAM                                                                      | DESCRIPTION                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
|--------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| SEPTEMBER 10, 202611:30 A.M. – 1:00 P.M.GALLERY AREA | STUDENT SUCCESSSTARTS HERE: YOURL.R.C. CONNECTION           | Discover how the Learning Resource Center can support your academic success. Students will learn about available library resources, research tools, services, and strategies to help them start the semester prepared and confident.               |
| OCTOBER 1, 20261:30 P.M. – 3:00 P.M.GALLERY AREA     | INFORMATIONLITERACY MONTH:SEARCH SMART,RESEARCH STRONG | Strengthen your research skills by learning how to locate, evaluate, and use reliable information. This program will introduce students to effective research strategies, credible sources, library databases, and responsible use of information. |
| NOVEMBER 2, 202611:30 A.M. – 1:00 P.M.GALLERY AREA   | PREPARING FORFINALS: FINISH THESEMESTER STRONG              | Get ready for finals with practical strategies for organization, research, study preparation, and time management. Students will also learn how LRC resources can support them as they complete final assignments, projects, and exams.            |