

Chancellor's Weekend Memo

Weekend Memo 1513

September 13-19, 2025

Student Success!

Members of the WCCCD Scholarship Committee met and reviewed 454 application packets for various scholarship offerings. The Committee awarded $163,750.00 to 78 worthy recipients for the 2025-2026 academic year. We are grateful to our donors who have established scholarships, as well as employees who contribute through payroll deductions, for their generous gifts to support WCCCD students. Our sincere congratulations to the recipients.

Dyamond Cooke

"I am truly honored to be awarded the Chancellor Academic Achievement Scholarship. This opportunity has not only lifted the financial burden of my education but has also given me the encouragement to keep striving towards my goals! I feel very thankful and blessed to be able to continue my journey in Radiology, a field I am deeply passionate about. I am grateful for this recognition and excited for what the future holds!"

"This award represents so much more than financial support; it is a reminder that my hard work, determination, and commitment to this path are seen and valued. As the first in my family to enter the dental hygiene profession, I feel proud to follow in the footsteps of my brother, a nurse, and to inspire my children with the same dedication. Receiving this scholarship lifts a great burden and allows me to focus more fully on my studies and patient care. Thank you sincerely for believing in me and for investing in my future."

Mariam Alaouie

Cameron Watson

"This scholarship not only eases the financial burden of pursuing my education in dental hygiene, but it also provides me with the essential tools I need to succeed in the program. Receiving this scholarship is a reminder that my hard work and dedication are being recognized and supported, and it motivates me to continue striving toward my goal of becoming a skilled and compassionate dental hygienist."

Brynn Beason

"This scholarship will allow me to continue and eventually complete the Dental Hygiene Program, where I will gain hands-on experience that will help shape my career goals. I am incredibly grateful for this opportunity presented to me."

Chiamaka Catherine Okoro

"I am writing to express my deepest gratitude for selecting me as a recipient of this scholarship. I am profoundly honored to receive this support, which will significantly contribute to my academic pursuits. Thank you for your belief in my potential and for investing in my future. I am committed to making the most of this opportunity and will strive to excel in my studies. Your generosity is truly appreciated."

Rehab Alhaj

"The scholarship is extremely valuable to me, not only because it supports me financially, but also because it reflects the commitment and dedication that I have put into this academic path. This award reminds me that all stress, hard work, and self-doubt moments are worthwhile and are the stepping stones for achieving my goal. Receiving this award set my heart on fire with new excitement and reminded me exactly why I chose dental hygiene as my major. Even after all the obstacles I went through, receiving this recognition confirmed that I have the capability to achieve my dream. It also pushed me forward with self-confidence and boosted my sense of accomplishment in both my academic and professional development. And more importantly, this award inspires me to make a difference in my community through my future practice as a dental hygienist. I am sincerely thankful for all this."

Rawan Ismail

"This scholarship will bring me closer to reaching that goal. Thank you for supporting my future and believing in what I can do."

Chancellor's Scholarship Recipient

India Williams

On behalf of WCCCD, I am pleased to congratulate India Williams as the recipient of the Chancellor's Scholarship. Ms. Williams, who survived a tragic shooting at age seven, is one of our new students taking classes during this Fall semester. She is a proud graduate of Martin Luther King Jr. Senior High School and a former participant in the Detroit Police Law Enforcement Explorers Program.

"I've always wanted to help people," Ms. Williams shared. "I know the road ahead won't be easy, but I'm determined to earn my nursing degree and eventually attend medical school to become an orthopedic surgeon."

In 2014, while riding her bike on Charest Street in Detroit, she was critically injured by a stray bullet during a crossfire between two vehicles. Since that day, she has faced life in a wheelchair with courage and grace.

We are honored to support India Williams' academic journey and excited to see all she will accomplish.

"She has always been ambitious and never let anything stop her from achieving her goals." ~Clinique Burnett-Davis, Mother

Victoria Christopher Murray

Receives WCCCD Honorary Associates of Arts Degree

At its September 17, 2025 Board Meeting, the WCCCD Board of Trustees approved a recommendation to award an Honorary Associates of Arts Degree to the 2025 Commencement Speaker Victoria Christopher Murray.

Ms. Murray is the New York Times and USA Today best selling author of more than thirty novels. Her novels, The Personal Librarian and The First Ladies, which she co-authored with Marie Benedict, were both Instant New York Times bestsellers. In addition to that achievement, The Personal Librarian was a Good Morning America Book Club selection and named a Best Book of the Year by NPR. The First Ladies novel received the distinction of Target's 2023 Book of the Year.

A native of Queens, New York, Victoria holds a B.A. in Communication Disorders from Hampton University and an MBA in Marketing from New York University Stern School of Business.

She originally self-published her first novel, Temptation and in 2000, Time Warner published that novel. Temptation remained on the Essence bestsellers list for nine consecutive months. In 2001, she received her first NAACP Image Award nomination for Outstanding Literature for her novel Temptation.

Over her career, Victoria continues to receive numerous awards including the Phyllis Wheatley Trailblazer Award, the Delta Sigma Theta Osceola Award for Excellence in the Arts, eleven (11) African American Literary Awards and five (5) NAACP Image Award nominations. In 2016, she won the NAACP Image Award for Outstanding Literature for her social commentary novel, Stand Your Ground, which was also a Library Journal Best Book of the Year.

CAPITOL UPDATE

Friday, September 12, 2025

Session Activity

The House approved House Bill 4349, permitting cities to establish special assessment districts to finance maintenance and improvements for private roads.

Senators passed Senate Bill 204 along party lines requiring school boards to establish procedures for potential building closures, aiming to ease the impact on families and staff.

Committee Activity

The Senate Elections and Ethics Committee reported four election bills along party lines this week, including a ban on paying petition circulators per signature and measures aimed at curbing misinformation.

The House Judiciary Committee heard testimony on House Bill 4667, creating three new AI-related felonies, and House Bill 4668, the Artificial Intelligence Safety and Security Transparency Act, which mandates risk management by large AI developers, adds regulations, and provides whistleblower protections.

In Other News

- Senate Democrats signaled support for many of the governor's road funding ideas. Senate Appropriations Chairwoman Sarah Anthony (D-Lansing) said a plan must combine new revenue along with budget cuts, while criticizing the slow negotiations ahead of the budget deadline. Possibilities include a wholesale marijuana tax, reallocating SOAR funds, heavy truck fees, and dedicating all fuel taxes to roads. This comes as another week passes with no action on the budget.
- The House Fiscal Agency reported August General Fund revenue at $1.2 billion, about $8.8 million above May estimates, but year-to-date collections remain $82 million below projections for FY 2024-25.
- Governor Gretchen Whitmer will deliver her "Protect and Defend Michigan's Economy" speech on Tuesday, September 16th, in Lansing. Her office highlighted the need for a state budget amid economic uncertainty at both state and national levels.
- The Senate continues its effort to have nine leftover 2023-24 bills sent to the governor. Earlier this year, a court of Claims judge affirmed the House's duty to present the bills but stopped short of compelling action. The case, Senate v. House (COA Docket No. 374786), is now before the Court of Appeals, with arguments heard Tuesday by Judges Christopher Murray, Thomas Cameron, and Daniel Korobkin.

DR. RANDALL MILLER'S CORNER

Shining the Light on...

Xuefei Qi

Xuefei (Faye) Qi brings a rich personal and professional history to Wayne County Community College District. Born in Luoyang, China and coming to the United States in 2000, she immediately focused her energies on completing her higher education, earning a Master's degree in Mathematics and Computer Science from Eastern Michigan University (EMU) in 2004. Before coming to the U.S., she had earned a Bachelor's degree in Engineering and Fashion Design from China Textile University in Shanghai in 1996.

Prior to completing her Master's degree at EMU, Faye began working at Detroit Public Schools as a web programmer and database administrator. She soon moved to Eisenbahn Model Trains, Inc. in Plymouth to serve as the web master and database administrator, where she was responsible for designing and developing their website, for Internet research, and for updating and enhancing web graphics and images.

Thinking about how quickly web technology was advancing during this period, Ms. Qi's educational background and work experience prepared her for another move to the City of Ann Arbor, where she served as a web content/analysis specialist and designed and developed the city of Ann Arbor's website and maintained web content to meet all city departments' requirements.

She then moved to Leapers, Inc. in Livonia as a website analysis specialist where she developed and maintained the company website and worked with internal/external staff to identify, develop and implement online Web applications and solutions.

Having amassed a vast amount of relevant experience, Ms. Qi joined WCCCD, serving as the webmaster. She presently serves as the District Director, Web Security Administrator and develops, maintains and updates the college website for all departments, campuses, services, and products on a daily basis. She was central to the recently launched new college website and continues to have major responsibilities for updating and maintaining that site. Given her commitment to working in website development, her personal and professional goal is to continue learning new skills and keeping pace with new trends and staying abreast of cutting-edge technology.

When she is away from the District she enjoys dancing Zumba and playing pickleball. She also likes to explore nature and learn about different cultures. She is also fluent in written and spoken Mandarin Chinese.

CULTURAL ENRICHMENT

The International Women's Tea

The International Women's Tea was a vibrant event that served as a powerful platform for cultural exchange, networking, and community building. This event provided a unique and valuable opportunity to engage with communities, deepen understanding of global cultures, and foster meaningful connections.

Cultural Enrichment Course

Drs. Allan Cosma and Fidelis D'Cunha met to discuss the creation of a Cultural Enrichment course. This course would examine the value of long-held "Common Core" principles through an exploratory lens, while fostering inclusivity, strengthening cultural connections, and preparing students for the next millennium.

VIRTUAL INTERCULTURAL CONVERSATIONS

Participants in this week's Virtual Intercultural Conversations series joined in a session honoring National Hispanic Heritage Month and International Day of Democracy. Professor Bruce Ewen kicked off the session with Hispanic music. Dr. Fidelis D'Cunha facilitated the discussion which included presentations by Shaily Dey presented on Hispanic American history and by Nijhum Chakraborty on the value of democratic principles with reflections on Nepal.

The Associates of Applied Science in Fashion Industrial Tailor and/or College Certificate in Fashion Industrial Tailor and/or the Certificate of Achievement in Industrial Tailor, all with an emphasis on sewing. Also available is the Associates of Applied Science in Fashion Merchandising and/or College Certificate in Fashion Merchandising both with an emphasis on Business.

Financial Aid

Federal Work-Study (FWS) students started the Fall 2025 semester with temporary part-time jobs which are secured through the District Financial Aid Office. This program is designed to help students pay for educational expenses with wages earned directly from their employers. To receive these funds, student workers must first apply for federal student aid by submitting the FAFSA and demonstrate financial need. Once determination of eligibility is established, students are awarded federal funds and finally are able to secure a position with a participating offsite organization, or with one of our five campuses or center.

The District Financial Aid Office is preparing for the first disbursement of student financial aid funds for the Fall 2025 semester. The funds being disbursed are federal and state funds. They will cover tuition, fees, books, and supplies.
