

SPECIAL EVENT

Wayne County Community College District's Michigan Institute for Public Safety Education (MIPSE) Conducts Campus Safety Officer Training

Wayne County Community College District (WCCCD) trains its Campus Safety Officers to be prepared to handle all kinds of problems and situations that might arise throughout the District. The following topics and activities are explored: Fire Extinguishers, Active Shooters on Campus, Student Safety Education and the American Heart Associations CPR for Healthcare Provider certification.

