Wayne County Community College District's Michigan Institute for Public Safety Education
(MIPSE)
Provides Training for SWAT Teams

Wayne County Community College District's Michigan Institute for Public Safety Education provides tactical law enforcement training for SWAT Teams. Because SWAT must perform high-risk operations that fall outside of the abilities of regular officers, it is important that they continuously work and train at the highest level possible to remain on the cutting edge. MIPSE provides state of the art equipment for the best training in the state of Michigan.
