ABOUT THE PROGRAM

The Addiction Studies College Certificate program prepares graduates to work as entry level professionals in centers and facilities serving persons who are dependent upon addictive substances. Job functions include interviewing, conducting group sessions, and behavior management.

WHAT DO ADDICTION STUDIES PROFESSIONALS DO?

Substance abuse and behavioral disorder counselors advise people who have alcoholism or other types of addiction, eating disorders, or other behavioral problems. They provide treatment and support to help the client recover from addiction or modify problem behaviors.

WHERE DO THEY WORK?

Substance abuse and behavioral disorder counselors work in a wide variety of settings, such as mental health centers, community health centers, prisons, and private practice. Most work full-time.

PAY

The median annual wage of substance abuse and behavioral disorder counselors was $46,240 in 2019.

JOB OUTLOOK

Employment of substance abuse and behavioral disorder counselors is expected to grow by 22 percent from 2018 to 2028, much faster than the average for all occupations. Growth is expected as addiction and mental health counseling services are increasingly covered by insurance.
