

Criminal Justice: Public/Private Security

PAY

The median annual wage for security guards and gaming surveillance officers was $29,710 in May 2019.

JOB OUTLOOK

Employment of security guards and gaming surveillance officers is projected to grow 4 percent from 2018 to 2028, about as fast as the average for all occupations. Overall job opportunities should be excellent, especially for security guards. Within the Detroit metropolitan area, opportunities exist within the casinos, automotive companies, hospitals and corporations.

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

The Criminal Justice: Public/Private Security Certificate Program provides students with knowledge and hands-on experience in trend analysis, risk analysis, security surveys, and the application of Crime Prevention through Environmental Design. Students will also learn how to address different security related events, conduct site surveys, and utilize proactive security measures. The Program is beneficial to those interested in entering the field, those currently employed in the field, police officers, corrections officers, business owners, architects, retail workers, school employees, operations personnel, and those seeking the knowledge to help secure their environment.

WHAT DO CRIMINAL JUSTICE SECURITY INDIVIDUALS DO?

Criminal Justice: Public/Private Security individuals are responsible for the development, implementation and management of the organization's corporate security vision, strategy and programs. They direct staff in identifying, developing, implementing and maintaining security processes across the organization to reduce risks, respond to incidents, and limit exposure to liability in all areas of financial, physical, and personal risk; establish appropriate standards and risk controls associated with intellectual property; and direct the establishment and implementation of policies and procedures related to data security.

WHERE DO THEY WORK?

Criminal Justice: Public/Private Security graduates work in such areas as private, corporate, business and residential property settings, the Transportation Security Administration (TSA), casinos, automotive companies, hospitals, and shopping malls.
