Paralegal Technology

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

The Paralegal Technology Associate of Applied Science degree program provides students with the educational background and training required to become a paralegal, legal assistant or legal aide. Graduates of the Paralegal Technology Program are able to assist a licensed attorney in providing legal services to their clients. The program provides the knowledge and skills regarding the legal system and substantive and procedural law necessary to perform many routine legal processes under the supervision of a licensed attorney.

WHAT DO PARALEGALS AND LEGAL ASSISTANTS DO?

Paralegals and legal assistants do a variety of tasks to support lawyers, including maintaining and organizing files, conducting legal research, and drafting documents.

WHERE DO THEY WORK?

Paralegals and legal assistants are found in all types of organizations, but most work for law firms, corporate legal departments, or government agencies. They usually work full-time, and overtime is sometimes needed to meet important deadlines.

PAY

The median annual wage for paralegals and legal assistants was $51,740 in May 2019.

JOB OUTLOOK

Employment of paralegals and legal assistants is projected to grow 12 percent from 2018 to 2028, much faster than the average for all occupations. This occupation attracts many applicants, and competition for jobs will be strong. Experienced, formally trained paralegals with strong computer and database management skills should have the best job prospects.
