1. Advance efforts for the distance learning change application to the Higher Learning Commission to expand distance education offerings.

2. Enhance continuing education opportunities provided by campuses and through virtual alternatives to support the enrichment needs of the community.

3. Continue building and facility maintenance to ensure efficiency while conserving energy and supporting equality educational opportunities.

4. Continue marketing and recruitment strategies that increase accessibility to quality and competitive education experiences within an inclusive learning environment.

5. Integrate collaborative business and workforce partnerships for training to support workforce development and credit-bearing career and technical education programs in high-skill and high-demand industries.

6. Advance curriculum renewal and new program development to strengthen both career education and liberal arts that help students achieve their career and education goals.

7. Retool the Student Success Center with both virtual and campus services focused on student-centeredness and engagement to improve retention, degree completion, and consistency of student services across each campus.

8. Advance institutional advancement and giving to connect long-lasting relationships with alumni and the community to support scholarships and institutional grants.

9. Strengthen technology initiatives to enhance distance education modalities, innovative teaching and learning, and high quality technology services that support district-wide efficiency.

10. Advance professional development initiatives that support operational excellence and succession planning to sustain excellence and for faculty and staff district-wide.

11. Continue implementation of structured and collaborative partnerships with four-year colleges and universities through the Mary Ellen Stempfle University Center.

12. Continue development of partnerships with secondary schools to advance dual enrollment programming strategies and effectiveness.