Conversation Peace: A Candid Discussion about the Historical and Current Relationship between African Americans and Jews

THURSDAY, APRIL 18, 2019

11:00 A.M.

NORTHWEST CAMPUS

LARRY K. LEWIS EDUCATION CENTER • LECTURE HALL

8200 W. OUTER DRIVE, DETROIT, MI 48219

Conversation Peace is a discussion on the historical and current relationship between African Americans and Jews. Presented by The Philo Project and hosted by Professor Michael Eric Dyson, the discussion will explore the complexities of how African American and Jewish political and cultural identities have evolved in relationship to one another via an examination of social and political history.

Michael Eric Dyson is Professor of Sociology at Georgetown University. He is an author, a contributing opinion writer at the New York Times, an MSNBC political analyst, a contributing editor at New Republic, the host of the Michael Eric Dyson Podcast Featuring Dr. Dan Ratner, and an ordained Baptist minister for over 30 years.
