Earth Month is a month-long observance and includes Earth Day, held on April 22. It demonstrates and promotes awareness of Earth Month, environmental justice, racial equity issues, racial reckoning and the interconnectedness of racism, pollution and poverty.

Increasing natural disasters, extreme weather, and rising global temperatures may seem impossible for one human, let alone millions or even billions of humans, to slow down, or stop.

We need to advocate for and promote a sustainable, equitable, clean-energy economy.
