

All About the Arts

STORYLIVING WITH Madelyn Porter

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 8, 2023

10:00 AM

COLOR MY WORLD

Colors often have symbolic meaning in literary works. Cultural diversity, emotions, and colorism is examined through poetry, prose, spoken-word and the works of author Ntozake Shange.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 15, 2023

10:00 AM

THE GREAT MIGRATION

Over the course of six decades, nearly six million black southerners left the South and fanned out across the United States transforming urban America. Highlighted are three women of Detroit and the circumstances of how their family's migration and their experiences, shaped who they were and defined the course of their lives in the 1920s, 1940s and the 1960s.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 22, 2023

10:00 AM

RHYME & RHYTHM

This program is designed to educate, enlighten, empower, and entertain. African American culture is explored through Classic tales written in rhyme, spoken-word, Black Folklore, Poetry and more.

Northwest Campus

Denise Wellons-Glover Welcome Center
8200 W. Outer Drive, Detroit, MI 48219

This series is open to the public at no cost!

FOR MORE INFORMATION, CONTACT THE HEINZ C. PRECHTER EDUCATIONAL AND PERFORMING ARTS CENTER AT 734-374-3200 OR VISIT WWW.WCCCD.EDU

Follow Us!   