Experience hands-on workshops and learn about what the Metaverse really means in the world of education. Workshops will consist of information and resource sharing and includes time using the Oculus Quest 2 VR Headset. These workshops are meant to engage faculty, students, and our community in exploring how virtual reality intersects with the world of work, research, and learning. Faculty will have the opportunity to learn how to use VR headsets for workforce simulations, science exploration, and computer coding.