The world is yours to discover! Take the first step and join the Wayne County Community College District’s (WCCCD’s) Study Abroad Program to Portugal and add your studying abroad experiences to your portfolio as part of your international education. Come and join us this Fall and make international education a part of your experiences here at Wayne County Community College District. Sign up today for the Fall Study Abroad trip to Portugal.

The week-long stay in Portugal will explore this tiny nation’s rich history as well as its contemporary culture and language, encapsulated in the ancient and modern capital city of Lisbon. The Study Abroad trip to Portugal will allow WCCCD students to take away numerous, valuable experiences such as:

- Learn basic language essentials with three 1/2 day language lessons at the CIAL Centro de Linguas, including a certificate of program completion
- Discover the history and contemporary dynamic of Lisbon during specialized visits and walking tours
- Encounter student life while visiting a local university or polytechnic institute
- Savor Portuguese cuisine with dinners at local restaurants (including a choice of dishes), and a cooking demonstration.
- Explore the historic towns of Sintra, Cabo da Roca, and Cascais during a day-long excursion
- Experience local family life with a visit to a host family
