Admission Information

WELCOME
Wayne County Community College District (WCCCD) welcomes applications from international students who have completed secondary education and are eligible for admission to college-level studies. An accredited two-year community college, WCCCD offers the following degrees: Associate of Arts, Associate of Science, Associate of Applied Science, Associate of General Studies and certificates in a variety of programs.

ABOUT WAYNE COUNTY COMMUNITY COLLEGE DISTRICT
The College serves as a leader providing educational services and training to residents of Southeast Michigan. Distinctive in its purpose and history, WCCCD was established by a public mandate and chartered in 1967. In 1969, the first classes were offered by the institution known as the “college without walls,” reflecting that WCCCD had no buildings or facilities of its own. By 1982, the College had constructed five campuses within its 550-square-mile service district. As a two-year “open door” institution, WCCCD is committed to providing an affordable high-quality education in an atmosphere of friendly support and encouragement.

LOCATION
Wayne County Community College District’s six facilities are located in suburban, urban, and rural areas of Wayne County. Metropolitan Detroit offers a broad choice of cultural institutions and recreational activities, including major sports teams. In addition to being the world’s automotive capital, Detroit is host to leading medical institutions, high-technology manufacturers, and international-class financial institutions.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT ADMISSION POLICY
• A completed Wayne County Community College District International Student Application (with original signatures, no copies) for Admission form submitted by the application deadline. Please provide complete information. Incomplete forms will result in delays in reviewing applications.
• Official high or secondary school transcript/certificate
  a. All foreign Secondary School and College credentials not in English must be evaluated by Educational Credential Evaluation (ECE) or World Education Services (WES).
• Official university/college transcripts (if applicable) For College credentials and transcripts:
  If selecting ECE, you must request the Course-by-Course Evaluation. If selecting WES, you must request the Comprehensive Course-by-Course Evaluation. You must request that the ECE or WES evaluation of college credentials be mailed directly to Wayne County Community College District at the address listed on the Admission Application.
• English Language Proficiency Scores. Wayne County Community College District international student applicants are required to provide the Office of International Programs and Global Partnership with valid documentation of English proficiency. Confirming one or more of the following options will meet the English proficiency requirement at WCCCD:
  a. An official high school transcript from an accredited U.S. high school with the graduation/completion date clearly listed or
  b. Official TOEFL or IELTS results within the score range of: Paper-based TOEFL = 500 or above; Computer-based TOEFL = 173 or above; Internet-based TOEFL = 61 or above; IELTS = 6.
  c. (NOTE: TOEFL scores must be sent directly from Educational Testing Service and cannot be more than 2 years old. To order a test report from ETS, call 609-771-7100. WCCCD’s code is 1937. For IELTS, test scores should be mailed from the IELTS test administrator to the International Programs and Global Partnership Office, WCCCD, 801 W. Fort Street, Detroit, MI 48226). Or
  d. At least 24 hours of college level credit from a U.S. college or university that will transfer to Wayne County Community College District or
  e. The student comes from a country that uses English as the official/main language of communication. Students who use English as a first language, are NOT required to submit TOEFL / IELTS scores; however proficiency testing once the student arrives may require the student to take developmental English classes.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF RESPONSIBILITIES AND LIABILITY NOTICE

By signing this application below, I confirm that I have received and read the guidelines outlining the responsibilities for F-1 students to maintain legal F-1 in the United States while studying at Wayne County Community College District (WCCCD). I further understand by signing below that failure to adhere to these regulations can and will result in termination and/or loss of legal status in the United States. Additionally, I acknowledge that in consideration and as a condition of my acceptance to WCCCD, I have a responsibility to contact an International Student Advisor/Designated School Official (DSO) for questions and concerns relating to F-1 issues.

The DSO or International Student Advisors are not “Advocates” or “Representatives” for students in legal capacity or any form of litigation. I understand that the DSO, the International student office employees, and all WCCCD employees do not and are not in a capacity to provide legal advice to students and their family members. Therefore, I hereby indemnify all WCCCD employees, the DSO, and the International programs staff of liabilities emanating from counsels or advices relating to legal issues. All immigration related issues are sole responsibilities of the students and not the responsibility of WCCCD. If/when a student is involved in an issue relating to immigration that requires legal advice, the student is strongly advised to employ the services of a licensed immigration lawyer.

The roles of students for compliance with Homeland Security/U.S authorities F-1 laws and Regulations

The U.S Federal Government and appropriate departments provide all international students with regulations on how to maintain F-1 status. Lack of compliance to these regulations may/will lead to termination and possible deportation. Below is a brief overview of the responsibilities stated for maintaining F-1 status while studying in the United States/Wayne County Community College District!

• Students must maintain all F-1 status related documentations (Valid Visa, SEVIS I-20, I-94, etc)
• Students must inform the office of International Programs of any change of address, phone numbers, sponsor’s information, etc within 10 days of the change.
• F-1 students are required to enroll in degree seeking programs and maintain satisfactory academic progress in order to remain in legal status. To achieve this, student must abide by the approved plan of work or notify the office of international programs of any change in field of study.
• Academic progress – all F-1 students must maintain a satisfactory academic progress.
• All international students must be enrolled in 12 credit hours every semester unless approved in advance to take reduced work load (DSO approval).
• Only one ONLINE class can be counted towards the required 12 credit-hour load
• Exception – Summer semester can be taken off if the student has completed two consecutive semesters at WCCCD. Also, in summer semester, F-1 student can take reduced work load of 6 credits only if summer semester is NOT their first semester at WCCCD.
• F-1 students must submit extension requests to the International Programs office 45 days prior to the expiration of current I-20.
• After program completion, F-1 students have 60 days to decide on what next to do. Options may include: Departing the United States, initiating a SEVIS School transfer to another College, change F-1 status (refer to USCIS.GOV), or start a new program.
• Working in the U.S under F-1 status. International students are able to work ONLY with the appropriate authorization. These may include on-campus jobs or off campus jobs (with Homeland Security (DHS) approval). International Students are only permitted to work 20 hours/week while enrolled full-time. Jobs accepted without prior DHS/DSO approval is considered illegal.
• Students must have endorsed/duly signed SEVIS Form I-20 before traveling in/out of the United States at all times.
• Check the International Programs website at all times for updates and also attend ALL orientations (semester based). It is also mandatory for all international students to check their WCCCD email accounts for notices, information, and updates.

Students do not need to secure a third party agency or institution to be considered for admission at WCCCD. WCCCD staff is available at no cost to assist students through the application and acceptance process. However, if a student chooses to involve a third party agency or institution, he/she becomes responsible for all activities and transactions conducted with WCCCD by the third party agency on behalf of the student.

I certify that I understand all sections of this application and information provided is true to best of my knowledge.
