WCCCD'S MICHIGAN INSTITUTE FOR PUBLIC SAFETY EDUCATION HONORS 60 STUDENTS IN PUBLIC SAFETY FIELD

Wayne County Community College District's (WCCCD) Michigan Institute for Public Safety Education (MIPSE) is pleased to announce that more than 60 students from all areas of Southeastern Michigan have completed training and received certification in Emergency Training and Response.

WCCCD MIPSE students are able to receive career training in Fire Fighting, Emergency Medical Services, Industrial Safety, Homeland Security and Law Enforcement at the national level with emergency response education and training services in a safe and controlled environment.

"Our programs and certifications provide excellent career training for our students. MIPSE prepares our students to compete in high demand fields such as fire fighting, Emergency Medical Services and Industrial Safety. Certification from MIPSE ensures tremendous career opportunities for our students." said Anthony Arminiak, President, WCCCD Downriver Campus/Provost, MIPSE.

"Prior to MIPSE, there was not a state-of-art public safety training facility in Wayne, Monroe or Washtenaw County. Programs such as these not only help build a vibrant learning center for our region, but support our community in making sure we have skilled, competent people who can take on the challenges of emergency operations and potential disaster situations," said Dr. Curtis Ivery, Chancellor.

SPECIAL EVENTS

Fire OPS 101 May 7, 2011

The District's Michigan Institute for Public Safety Education (MIPSE) will hosted Fire OPS 101 for local elected officials. This one-day training will give elected officials the chance to experience four different scenarios fire departments face each day. Scenarios include: operating the Jaws-of-Life to gain access to a trapped victim of a car accident and experience the heat that is generated in a room fire. All training will be conducted while officials are wearing traditional fire fighting gear.
